The minutes of the regular meeting held at Normal, June 2, 1902, were approved, as printed.

The president of the university presented and read the following report, which was referred to the various committees for consideration.

PRESIDENT FELMLEY'S REPORT.

To the Board of Education of the State of Illinois:

MR. PRESIDENT AND MEMBERS OF THE BOARD—During the school year ending Aug. 23, 1903, the total enrollment of normal students was 1014. Seventy-two counties were represented.

Fifty-five of these are high school graduates.

During the fall term 54 counties were represented as follows:

The enrollment for the fall term was 118 less than during the corresponding term last year, a falling off of 23 per cent. There are doubtless various reasons for this decline which is shared to some extent by many other state normal schools in the west. Among the causes affecting us are the establishment and growth of other strong institutions within our immediate territory and the extraordinary demand for teachers.

The diminished attendance has reduced our classes to a size that makes the most thorough work possible. It has also afforded the faculty time and energy for outside work. County superintendents have been informed of our willingness to address teachers' meetings with no other compensation than our traveling expenses. In consequence our teachers are now called upon for more work of this character than for years before.

THE FACULTY.

Early in August, Miss Mary Judson Averett, our teacher of geography, then ill at her brother's home in New York, resigned. Her work in the department had been so vigorous, progressive and popular with the student body, that I felt we could not afford to lose her permanently. In subsequent correspondence she held out little hope of return to her work in the institution. Under the direction of our Committee on Teachers, Mr. Douglas C. Ridgley has been employed as professor of geography at a salary of $2,000 for 39 weeks. Mr. Ridgley is a graduate of the Indiana State Normal School and of the Indiana State University. His experience includes almost every kind of public school work. For six years past he has taught in Chicago. At the time of his employment he was teacher of Physiography in the South Division High School. Mr. Ridgley has begun his work with characteristic energy. He has already collected a quantity of material for a geographical museum.

THE KINDERGARTEN.

The kindergarten, established one year ago, is amply justifying our expectations. The young women preparing especially for primary work are generally electing the kindergarten course of four hours per week recitations and lectures, and one hour daily practice in the kindergarten. The number of children admitted is limited to 40. It is recommended that the salary of the director, Miss Caroleen Robinson, be raised from $60 to $75 per month for the remainder of the school year of nine months.

PHYSICAL TRAINING.

The work in this department has undergone marked improvement. All of the students of the entering classes are taking the work except in the few cases where physical weakness makes it inadvisable. The exercises include a variety of Swedish movement drills, marching, running, dancing, and games. There is no longer any pressure from the students to be excused. On the contrary, many advanced students who had completed our former requirements have asked permission to resume the work. The instruction includes a variety of school room games and exercises for young children.

With the trebling of the amount of gymnastic training has come a demand for additional apparatus. About $90.00 have been expended in this direction. The room designed for a bowling alley has been ceiled, floored, plastered, wainscoted, and a bowling alley installed at a total cost of $1,280.00. The installation of heating appliances and electric fixtures is not yet complete.

In personal qualities, in spirit, and in the character of her instruction, the new director, Miss Cummings, has proved a strong addition to our faculty. In the men's athletics she has received the best of aid from Messrs. Bawden and Stewart.

MANUAL TRAINING.

In accordance with the plans previously reported to the board and approved at its last meeting, the northwest room of the basement of the main building was fitted up for shop work in manual training. Twelve Toles benches were installed and equipped with suitable tools. The instruction during the fall term consisted of bench work only. An additional course is now taught in paper and cardboard work for the primary grades, and in basketry for the intermediate grades. The instructor devotes fifteen hours per week to normal classes, seven hours to grammar grade classes, five hours to high school classes, besides Thursday evenings and Saturday forenoons to the teachers of the public school. At the benches the students make articles for personal use, for gifts, for the home, and for the use of the institution. A careful working drawing precedes the tool work. For the training department a detailed course has been arranged. For the lower grades the course consists of building with blocks, paper and card board work with coloring, textiles and basketry, group work in modeling a farm, an Indian village, a doll house and furnishings, and various geographical studies. For the grammar grades there is added knife-work, bench work, wood carving, and bent iron. Only a small portion of this course is now taught. The regular teachers have not yet acquired the necessary technical skill, and no student teacher has made the requisite preparation. As fast as student teachers are ready to do the work provision will be made in the daily program of the training department. The head of the department, Mr. Bawden, is proving an admirable instructor. In the fall term sixteen Normal students took the work. Now forty-eight are enrolled. An extra class has been formed to take the work after school, yet it has been necessary to turn away several applicants.

The $300 appropriated for equipping the department has all been spent; it is recommended that an additional appropriation of $300 be made to double the present outfit.

THE PRACTICE SCHOOL.

Although the training department is in excellent working condition, there are a few people in Normal who are not satisfied with the agreement existing between the State Board of Education and the school board of the town of Normal by which a portion of the public schools is used as a training department. So far as I know, the active opposition is confined to people who were hostile to the union when made. They object to having their children "practiced upon" by normal students. A suit was begun in the November term of the McLean county circuit court against the normal school board praying the court to declare the contract illegal and void, and to restrain the board from carrying out the contract. It is claimed by the petitioner that the local school board is not competent to enter into such contract, to permit student teachers to instruct classes, or to pay critic teachers employed by the State Board of Education. The suit has met with some delay. A meeting of citizens opposed to the union was held on December 8, to arrange for a petition to the school board to resubmit to the people of the district the question of the union. The meeting was not largely attended.

THE SUMMER SCHOOL.

The attendance at the summer school showed a gratifying increase over the preceding year, being 28 greater in the first term and 11 greater in the second term. Of the $5,000 added to the appropriation of 1903-4 for summer school purposes, $4,903.47 was used for extra salaries for the summer session. The term fees were $761. There was a surplus remaining in the treasury of $857.53.

It is probable that the St. Louis Exposition will prove a strong attraction for Illinois teachers, still I believe the attendance at our next summer school will be nearly as large as last year. It is recommended that there be offered in 1904 substantially the same course as in 1903, and that the Committee on Teachers and salaries be authorized to appoint the necessary additional teachers.

COURSE OF STUDY.

Heretofore no regular work in declamation or public speaking has been required of our students. The numerous volunteer organization, the Philadelphian and Wrightonian societies, the Cicironian debating club, for young men, the Sapphonian society, the Girl Debating club, the Young Men's and Young Women's associations, together with the annual February contests in declamation and oratory, the annual debates with the State Normal School at Oshkosh and the speeches at commencement have furnished large opportunity for this sort of culture. Yet a somewhat extended investigation has revealed the fact that a large percentage of our students take no part whatever in this work, and that students have even graduated without availing themselves of any of these means. Some members of our faculty now have time to give to assisting pupils in these lines. The faculty therefore requests that some rhetorical work be required of all students, either in the volunteer student societies or in regular classes organized for this purpose, the required work not to exceed three exercises per term. The faculty also recommends that, inasmuch as the Theory of Physical Culture is now taught in connection with the regular courses in the gymnasium, the six weeks heretofore devoted to the Theory of Physical Culture be added to Course 1, in Reading, making that course 12 weeks in length.

LOUISIANA PURCHASE EXPOSITION.

It is expected that this institution will prepare an exhibit for the St. Louis Exposition. The Illinois Commission has set aside $300 for each of the State Normal schools. The exhibit requested will include a topographical map of the grounds, photographs of the grounds and buildings, photographs of the interior views of the libraries, class rooms, laboratories, etc., publications of the school, theses of the students, graduate and and undergraduate, a description of the methods of instruction, charts and catalogues setting forth the courses of study, equipment, maintenance history and purpose of the school, a collection of work done by pupils in the practice school, a representative collection of students' written work with special reference to those forms peculiar to normal schools, and pamphlets for free distribution descriptive of the exhibit and the school. From this particular list of the features of the proposed exhibit it is evident that $300 will not go very far. It is requested that an additional sum of $300 or so much thereof as may be necessary, be appropriated from the general fund.

BUILDINGS AND GROUNDS.

The gardener employed last March closed his work with us October 31. During the term of his service several additional flower beds were planted on the grounds, also a large number of trees, shrubs and vines, as reported at last meeting. In the school garden the portion devoted to flowering shrubs and perennials is now nearly planted. The portion of the garden devoted to flowering annuals, to the ordinary kitchen garden for the primary grades, and for the growth of the rarer sorts of vegetables and old English herbs received the best of attention during the summer and we have been greatly pleased with the results obtained in that department of his work. It would be better to employ for next year a younger man who has been trained in the planting and care of extensive grounds. I am in correspondence with two such men and would request that such employment be authorized. Of the special appropriation of $2,000 made by the Legislature for the further improvement of our grounds, none has been spent except a small amount for flowering plants, and for fencing the school garden.

In accordance with the action of the board at its last meeting the following expenditures have been made.

Painting outside woodwork of all buildings.....	$ 778 73
Frescoing side walls of University Hall.....	100 00
Painting walls and frescoing Library.....	839 27
Painting interior woodwork, Main Building.....	1,196 27
Rebuilding south wall of Grammar School.....	373 00
School desks and blackboards in Training School.....	289 44
Completing and furnishing bowling alley.....	1,281 30
Fencing about school garden.....	102 50

The above does not include the architect's fee, nor the expense of ventilating the gymnasium, nor of additional steam radiators nor electric fixtures for gymnasium. It will be observed that most of these expenditures considerably exceed the estimates. In view of the cost of the other improvements in the gymnasium, it was thought best not to undertake the completion of the natatorium.

Under the direction of the Committee on Buildings and Grounds, the following additional repairs were made,

Additional gymnasium apparatus.....	$ 93 50
Desks and furniture for teachers.....	117 00
Linoleum and rugs for faculty cloak rooms.....	98 38
Partition in women's cloak room.....	104 97
Fitting up boys' cloak room.....	68 35
Miscellaneous carpenter's repairs.....	118 00
Repairing stone steps at entrance Main Building.....	63 15
New roof on boiler room.....	158 80
Covering steam pipe with asbestos.....	48 11
Renewing and repairing pumps, steam traps, etc.....	354 08
Repairs on ventilating system.....	68 00

In addition to these, further bills for repairs on ventilating system and for plumbing are due. These extraordinary repairs for which no special appropriations were made, have nearly exhausted the balance in our treasury.

LIBRARY REPORT.

Circulation June 8 to Dec. 14.

Books.....	9,330	Pictures.....	1,929
------------	-------	---------------	-------

The circulation of books is 1,665 volumes less than that of a year ago. This is caused partly by the smaller school, partly by the closing of the library to the students during the first part of the fall term, and partly by the different demands made upon the students by the new teachers.

Books purchased since June 1, 1903.

Agriculture and horticulture.....	4 vols.	Literature.....	7 vols.
Chemistry and physics.....	14 vols.	Manual training.....	29 vols.
Civics and economics.....	8 vols.	Music.....	6 vols.
General reference.....	19 vols.	Pedagogy and psychology.....	6 vols.
Geography.....	17 vols.	Reading.....	1 vol.
History.....	12 vols.	Total.....	129 vols.

Most important single purchase: Encyclopedia Americana in 16 volumes.

Most important gifts received: Annual reports Massachusetts Board of Mediation and Arbitration, five volumes; annual reports New York Board of Mediation and Arbitration, two volumes; annual reports of Conferences of National Civic Federation, two volumes.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS.

A good beginning has been made in working with the public schools. The teachers have been supplied with reference books for themselves and pictures for the class work. Pupils in the advanced grades have drawn out special references for their lessons as required. A set of 26 assorted volumes was sent to the West Side school and circulated there for nearly two months. Reading lists have been made for the grades below the High school and the pupils have drawn out the books under the same rules as those limiting the pupils of the Training school. The course of study is used as a guide in making these lists. Part of the books bear directly on the lessons. The rest are either nature books or are selected for their literary value.

Miss MacLochlin, the new assistant, is excellent. Her character, disposition, intelligence and training all fit her for filling her position, and the result is thoroughly satisfactory.
